5. CLASSIFICATION:

a / teams

b / individual

c / for the biggest fish of the competition.

6. PRINCIPLES:

a / TEAM CLASSIFICATION - sum of points – individual places scored by players from the team / the lowest sum of points gives victory in this classification /

b / INDIVIDUAL CLASSIFICATION - total weight of fish / the highest weight of fish gives victory in this classification /

c / THE LARGEST FISH - the weight of the fish

d / Surprise awards - drawn from the participants of the event.

7. FISH:

We report to fish the weight of all species occurring in the tank in accordance with the protective dimensions included in the RAPR (rules for amateur fishing – made by PZW) and not covered by the protection period. The score will include all fish with min. length of 25 cm as long as the protective dimension of a given species is not greater. The exception is bream, which is counted for scoring regardless of size.

8. CATCHING METHODS:

Players can fish on 2 fishing rods using the following methods:

- float

- feeder

- "live" bait can be used

9. JUDGING:

a / Each fish caught, which the competitor intends to submit for weighing should be reported to the player from the neighboring team.

b) In case of doubt, the organizers reserve the right to eviscerate the fish while weighing in order to check that they have not been stuffed - weighted. If such a case occurs, the team is disqualified.

c) Disqualification of the team may occur as a result of leaving a cluttered spot after the competition.

10. RULES OF BEHAVIOR AT THE TIME OF THE COMPETITION:

A competitor may leave the fishery only after reporting to the referee, or after informing the neighboring team with the reason and time of absence. Absence from the station results in pulling out sets from the water. It is unacceptable to leave the rods and stay it by the player leaving the position under the supervision of the other team members.

Competitors can use tents. Managers, referees and organizers can enter the peg. Team managers can help the team in all activities except fishing and baiting fish. Fishing takes place from the shore, wading and entry into the water is allowed until the start of the competition to prepare the position. In exceptional cases, it is allowed to enter the water to pick up the fish. In the case of arrival to the position of fans, families, friends, etc., this fact should be immediately reported to the organizer. During the competition, the entry of any vehicles close to the team's position with the persons mentioned earlier with the exception of the organizer's vehicles will be treated as a serious break of the rules of the competition and will result in disqualification of the whole team. During the competition it is forbidden to use equipment to transport/ outflow groundbaits and rigs. The use of all sounders equipment and markers is allowed. The team is obliged to leave peg clean. During the check-in we present what to do with rubbish.
